

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES COUNCIL OF NEW SOUTH WALES LTD

Glossary of Agricultural Show Terminology

Allocated Area means an area allocated to an Exhibit by the show society.

Applicant means the Person in whose name an Application for Entry is lodged with the show society, whether or not the Application for Entry was signed by that Person and includes the representatives and agents of an Applicant.

Application for Entry means the form of application for entry of an Exhibit at the Show and includes entry forms.

Attendant means the Person in charge of and any handler of an Exhibit in the Showground and may include an Exhibitor.

Award means an item awarded by the show society in recognition of achieving a certain standard in a Competition and includes a certificate, prize, cash prize, trophy, medal, ribbon, and rosette.

Book includes a Stud Book, a Herd Book, or a Flock Book.

Chief Steward means the Steward appointed by the show society to act as Chief Steward in respect of any Class and includes the Steward-in-Chief and any assistant Stewards-in-Chief of a section.

Class includes an Exhibition in respect of which an Award is scheduled. Committee means the committee responsible for the section, event, or activity in question. Competition means a contest between like Exhibits or Competitors.

Commercial Space- Space allocated for Commercial Exhibitors (excludes amusement operators) that attracts rent paid to the Show Society. Space can be allocated to Local and Community organisations free of charge (e.g. Police, Fire brigades, Scouts etc)

Committee means the group of people that run the show society

Competitor means a Person competing in a Class whether or not such Person is also the Exhibitor.

Contractor will generally:

1. be paid for hours worked, or for results achieved, or for a combination of both;
2. provide materials, tools, and equipment necessary to complete the work
3. have their own public and product liability insurance certificate of currency;
4. be free to delegate work to other entities;
5. have substantial freedom in the way the work is done;
6. provide similar services to the general public, including other businesses;
7. be free to accept or refuse the work offered;
8. make a profit or loss;
9. incur significant costs of running a business; and
10. bear the entrepreneurial risks associated with running a business.

Examples of a contractor may include an amusement operator, food van and market stalls.

Day of Exhibition means the day upon which an Exhibit competes before a Judge.

Exhibit, when used as a verb, includes a parade, contest, and display.

Exhibition includes a parade, contest, competition, and display.

Exhibition Pass means a pass issued by the show society to an Exhibitor enabling entry to the Showground.

Exhibitor means the Person on whose behalf an Application for Entry is lodged with and accepted by the show society and includes the representatives and agents of an Exhibitor.

Groom- Attendants that prepares livestock exhibits for judging.

Group Class means a Class where each Exhibit comprises two or more animals or items.

Honorary Life Member- A privilege bestowed on worthy recipients by the Society, in accordance with the constitution. Usually provides free entry to the show for life.

Judge means a Person appointed by the show society to adjudicate on a Class.

Judging Competition means a Competition where a prospective Judge is judged.

Life Member- By paying a fee as determined by the show society in accordance with their constitution the applicant becomes a member for life.

Member- A person who pays an annual fee to belong to the show society in accordance with their constitution, for benefits including entry to the annual Show. Can be in the form of Single, Family, Junior or any other category defined in the constitution.

Non-Competitive Exhibit means an Exhibit for Exhibition which is not eligible to receive any Award.

Owner, in relation to an Exhibit, means the Person:

(a) who is registered as the Owner of the animal in a Book; or

(b) in whom the Ownership of the Exhibit is beneficially vested to the exclusion of any equitable interest or contractual right on the Day of Entry. A stock mortgage is not of itself sufficient to have transferred any legal Ownership or to have created any equitable interest.

Person includes a natural person, firm, partnership, company, or corporation.

Staff Member includes all employees of the show society.

Show means the annual event.

Single Class means a Class where each Exhibit comprises only one item.

Steward means a Person appointed as such by the show society.

Volunteer – works for the show society without being paid